Adana is the Adarin from the Gemini universe.

History

Background

Adana and her twin sister Savannah moved to Phoenix, Arizona their sophomore year of high school and begin attending the Gemini school Apollo High, where they befriend the Swan twins Bella and Alli. When the Swans get their bonuses, Adana and Savannah help them experiment with their new powers.[1]

Volcano

When it's revealed that the Yellowstone supervolcano is about to go off, Adana's family and the Swan family evacuates to Charlie Swan's house in Forks, Washington.[2] As part of the Junebug evacuation effort, Bella teleports Adana and Savannah to the cities they are fetching refugees from and to, where they make portals.[3] When the cities are full Adana does person-by-person evacuation until the area becomes too dangerous, and Savannah finally forces her to stop.[4]

Aftermath

After everything is over, Savannah and Adana are awarded medals for their contribution.[5] After seeing Adana's interview, Bella asks her out.[6] Though Adana is initially hesitant to date someone who Savannah had dated, Savannah reassures Adana, and Bella and Adana become a couple.[7] Their relationship becomes well known when Adana does an interview and, annoyed by the interviewer's intentional denseness, emphasizes that she and Bella are dating, not friends.[8]

Twin Bonus

As twins from Gemini, Savannah and Adana got their powers (or "bonus") as soon as they turn sixteen. Adana's bonus is the power to create a single pair of portals, limited by her line of sight or a spatial awareness sense that extends to wherever her twin is.[9][10] Anything going through the portals will retain their momentum upon emerging.[11] She has not tested her portals on a vacuum, but she can transport liquids.[12]
