This article is about the Alli native to Myth. For characters with similar names, see Alli.

Alli is the Alli from the Myth universe.

History

Alli was born and raised in Toronto, Canada. Her father left when she was very young, and she and her older sister Jessica were raised by their mother. Jessica moved to Québec after finishing university, where Alli visits her periodically. While on a school trip to France, she was present for Mabel Swan's first change to dragon form; she helped May hide and explained the basics of how critters work. After the trip, the two remained friends, and Alli introduced May to the Toronto Avalon and runecasting.

Abilities

Nemean Lions have super strength and, when in their natural form, their hide is impervious to everything except the claws of a Nemean Lion. As a Nemean Lion with a medallion, Alli can change between her lion form and human form at will. She also has the ability to selectively combine the two forms, a state called being in "midform".
