Alymbel is the first known Bell from the Cycle universe. She was followed by Akibel Mowar, Beluna, and then Sylvibel Mar.

History

Aly was the first known Bell from Cycle, and as such, she never had any dreams of a past life.^[1] She was responsible for the invention of stork servants to collect babies, because prior to her release of the storks, unfound infants would often die of exposure.^[2] She also made herself a puppet scooter to compensate for her clumsiness.^[3] She eventually married Aydanci Evaret, but died in her mid twenties of the pox.^[4] Her raven servant is what allowed her husband to identify Akibel as "her".^[5]
