This article is about the Anthony Stark native to Sunshine. For characters with similar names, see Tony, Tony Stark, Anthony or Anthony Stark.

Background

Tony was the heir to the major corporation Stark Industries. At the age of twelve he cloned himself, creating Sherlock Holmes (Minus) who matured at an accelerated rate for several years until reaching the same apparent age as Tony, wherupon they presented as twins. At the age of 18, Tony, as well as his AI Jarvis, was murdered by a group of vampires with the assistance of Obadiah Stone.

Events post-return

Upon the peal's discovery of Downside, Tony was retrieved from the catacombs and repatriated. He and Sherlock then lived in a house inhabited by a copy of the Jarvis from Helios until the original Sunshine Jarvis was likewise retrieved from Downside.

After the creation of Soph, Tony formed a close relationship with her, and they eventually started dating.
