Chelasi is the Chelsea from the Ravel universe.

History

Chelasi originally lived in a city with her boyfriend Anlon. Finding the city too overwhelming, she and Anlon moved to a small house in the countryside of Casasha, where Chelasi would ravel passing travelers into befriending them and moving in.[1] They eventually built a household of ten, including four ravelers. One day Sharabel Swanpennon and Kayam pass by and, upon Chelasi's attempts to ravel them, kill her in self-defense.[2]

Magic

As a raveler, Chelasi received her options as a teenaager, and chose "enamouring", the ability to manipulate people's feelings and relationships.[3] She had the ability to both create new bonds and to remove existing ones.[4] Her magic is known to wear off eventually, as Shara saw her performing a "booster".[5] To Shara and Kayam's dismay, the effects of her raveling persisted beyond her death, rather than vanishing as an artificer's would.[6]

Friends

Chelasi had raveled the following people into living with her:

- Anlon, her boyfriend, was the only one who knew what Chelasi could do. He came with her from the city to start the original house.[7]
- Adarin Sorelas (Quilt) and Zeviana Sorelas (Kool-Aid) were on their way to find work in Casasha when they stopped at the house to rest and were raveled into staying.[8]
- Jony is a plant raveler. Chelasi was shopping in Antaurb when she met Jony, who had just broken up with her boyfriend; Jony came to stay with them to cool off and never left.[9]
- Kesaven is a building raveler. He was leaving Casasha for nowhere in particular, stopped for some of Jony's berries, and never left.[9]
- A woman named Tima
- Dayree
- Quel
- Netse
