Ealasiva is the Libby from the Cuddling Gods universe.

Interactions with Others

Eala is, generally, very good with people.[1]. She is a more involved god than Raezenoth, preferring her domain full of "thriving, happy people who occupy themselves in ways that suit them".[2] She and her neighboring god Viokai have an unusually cooperative relationship, accepting joint offerings and combining all of their temples.[3] When Idania Sadarene arrives, Eala is friendly and polite; she allows Idania to explore her domain and suggests meeting Viokai, though she does ask Syriel to quietly monitor the other acolyte.

Acolytes

Eala vets anyone who becomes an acolyte of her or Viokai's. Syriel was examined even more carefully, and was ultimately made an acolyte of both Eala and Viokai.[4] Her acolytes have the ability to speak all languages; however, she typically does not have many acolytes at once, as she and Viokai consider the ability "useful to have, but not that useful to have a lot of".[5]
