Jadis is a character from the Narnia universe. She has no known alts, being based on the same character from the Narnia source canon.

History

Jadis meets Eternal Winter in the woods near the Lantern.[1] She gives him a warm drink and jellybeans and chats with him.[2] Liking his violent tendencies, she brings him home to work for her as an assassin.[3] After a few years she sends him to the Tree of Youth to eat an apple so that she will not lose him to his mortality; he returns having instead eaten three, but successfully immortal. Eventually her interest in him fades, leaving him to her minions to be bribed with jellybeans. When she discovers the unusual tasks Winter has been performing for jellybeans she merely laughs.[4]
