Piper is the Matilda from the Tayane universe.

History

Piper was a human who was caught by a magic somewhere between one and three thousand years ago.[1] She was some unspecified age, though less than sixteen, at the time.[2]. She was running away from someone, tripped, and fell into a river.[3] The river carried her into the magic, which turned her into a large set of pipes similar to Sheng pipes, capable of playing her own pipes and hovering.[4] Her original name was not in Esevi, so she prefers to go by Piper.[5]

Current Day

Piper is stored in the attic at the Duke of Viore's estate, left alone after accidentally convincing multiple maids that the attic was haunted by a singing ghost.[6] She identifies herself to Aya when Aya stumbles across her in the attic.[7] As a way to communicate, Aya pastes letters to her keys, which Piper can then use to spell words.[8] Piper tells Aya she spoke to her and not Aelare because Aelare was hard on his furniture.[9] She moves herself downstairs to be closer to Aya and Aelare, having missed human company.[10]
