Info and Indexes (for readers)

Setting: Scholomance

Description: This megacontinuity is a giant many-person RP, sort of like past Tumblr RPs (e.g. Amenta).

How to read:

This megacontinuity may be hard to navigate, since it's extremely large and not entirely written in a linear order.

For this reason, there are a number of indexes which allow readers to read subsets of the megacontinuity in a more organized way.

General indexes:

- Smolomance
  - The broadest existing curated index, containing a very large fraction of the megacontinuity
  - Up to date through Day 7
  - To find threads involving a specific character, you can ctrl-F their name
- Mandarin Scholomance
  - The subset of the Scholomance following Mandarin-speaking characters and their companions
  - Up to date through Day 4
- scholomance curation
  - Contains a small number of character intros and that's it; may be useful to readers who just want a taste

Author-specific indexes:

- Scholomance Perspectives (Alicorn)
- Scholomance (Tyrians)
- Daria in the Scholomance
- Scholomance Perspectives (Lotus)
- Jarn's Scholomance Tracker

You can also read the entire thing without use of an index, if you want; good luck.
