Origin

Originated as a template mix of Alex and Jamie, inspired by a facecast Anya suggested for the former. Jalex is definitely no longer just that now, having his own unique motives, attractors, and relationships. Some inspiration was taken from the character his facecast plays - Enzo from Plush, which is not a movie I wholeheartedly recommend but was definitely entertaining.

Notable members include Jack Spade (hungry-eyes) from Twilight, Jackie Spade (looking-for-something) from CuriousDiscoverer's Elsewhere setting, and Jackal (walks-with-death), or Jacques Cavalier, from Beltane. The original instance was Enzo (ready-to-feed), who is unthreaded as of yet but belongs to the Refraindre setting.

Name Attractors

First name attractor is variations on Jack, last name attractor is either Spade, or defaults to his associated Dino's last name if there is one. He might also simply be called what he is - Raven, Jackal, etc.

- Possession and to a lesser extent other mind powers
